If You Live in Any of These Situations:

- Lack a regular, fixed, and adequate nighttime residence
- Live with family or friends due to economic hardship or conflict
- Live in a shelter, transitional housing, motel, hotel, or lack a permanent address
- Live in an unsheltered nighttime residence such as a car, campground, park, or substandard housing
- You are an unaccompanied youth (not with parent or legal guardian)

If due to a lack of housing, you must live in any of the situations above, then according to the McKinney-Vento Homeless Assistance Act, your living situation is considered homeless.

Helpful Tips:

Moving To A New Place:

- Try to plan your move at a time that will be least disruptive to your child's education
- Inform your child's school about your plans to move
- Contact your School District’s Homeless Liaison about the plans to move
- Allow your child time to say goodbye
- If moving to a new school district, enroll your child in the new district as soon as possible
- Contact the Homeless Liaison in the new district about your move
- Request a copy of all school records to help facilitate your child's enrollment into their new school

Other Helpful Tips:

- Keep a copy of birth certificates and school records for yourself
- Keep health and immunization records
- Get to know your child's teachers
- Assist with school activities
- Support your children at home and at school
- Read to your children
- Encourage your children to read
- Establish a regular time for doing homework
- Set high expectations for your children
- Encourage your children to participate in learning activities outside of school
- Become a partner with school staff

Children's Rights:

Under the McKinney-Vento Homeless Assistance Act, your child has the following rights:

- School Stability — No matter where you live, your child may continue to attend the school they were enrolled in prior to homelessness.
- Transportation — The school district must offer transportation to and from school for the duration of homelessness.
- Immediate Enrollment — If you move, you may enroll your child in the local attendance area school without documentation. The new school district’s homeless liaison can help with the enrollment process. See contact information under “Who do I call?”
- Continued Services — Services continue to the end of the school year or for the duration of homelessness. Services also continue while you and the school seek to resolve any disputes over enrollment.

We Can Help:

Your School District Homeless Liaison can help with:

- Transportation
- School meal program
- School supplies
- Counseling
- Help getting back into school
- Community resources
